

AETOUULA

Location:

The villas are located in the Cycladic Island of Ios on the hill just on top of the Mylopotas bay, with unobstructed views of the deep blue of the Aegean sea including the beautiful island of Santorini and Sikinos

Aetoula is less than 2km away from Mylopotas bay, 4km from city of Ios and 9km from the main port. Mylopotas Bay is the most popular beach on Ios and one of the most famous beaches in Greece. Mylopotas Beach has been awarded a Blue Flag for its quality service offering and its high environmental standards; it is more than 1km long and very wide, with beautiful golden sands and crystal-clear waters. Mylopotas also offers "beach fun", water sports, restaurants, bars and a lot of other activities.

Aetoula is located in a complex with 4 villas, each villa has been designed with particular attention to detail with the primary objective being to offer high quality of living.

Aetoula can only be accessed by car , no taxis or public transportation are available.

The villas are entirely constructed with materials from the island itself including natural wood, stone and glass. Modern in design with open spaces, combined with the simplicity of Greek traditional architecture, the villas create an architectural style that blends entirely with their natural surroundings.
